Valentine's Day 2012 NYC

This is the third in our series on restaurants to visit on Valentine's day in New York (part 1 & part 2).

The Boathouse at Central Park: Their Valentine's day menu runs a bit more expensive than most places, but it is the most romantic spot in NYC. Dinner will cost you $110 per person (plus taxes and tips), but with items like oysters and foie gras on the menu it is quite understandable. For more details or reservations call (212) 517-2233.
